

Week of: 8/27/07	Teacher: Cunningham	Team: Euro Hist.
-------------------------	----------------------------	-------------------------

Monday	TLW: be introduced to course; expect.	Objective: Syllabus; expectations
		Activities: Lecture/note-taking: Scope and sequence of course w/expectations; introduce late middle ages
		Materials: Syllabus; packet #1 (monarchs, etc.)
		Follow Up/HW: begin reading Chapter 9 (Kagan et al.); buy Fischer
Tuesday	TLW: be introduced to the late middle ages	Objective: Introduce chronology and significance of events in the late middle ages (con't)
		Activities: Lecture/note-taking: Society in the late middle ages
		Materials: reading: Tuchman—The Black Death; Packet #1: delta-32 and four horseman of the Apocalypse readings
		Follow Up/HW: study readings; begin outlining Chapter 9 (Kagan et al.)
Wednesday	TLW: learn chron. and sig. of events, late middle ages	Objective: Chronology and significance of events in the late middle ages (con't)
		Activities: Lecture/note-taking: Hundred Year' War and crisis in the Church
		Materials: Packet #1: great waves in history and little ice age readings
		Follow Up/HW: Read Chapter 9 (Kagan et al.) and outline it (due T)
Thursday	TLW: be introduced to the Italian Ren.	Objective: Introduce chronology and significance of events in the origin of the Italian Renaissance
		Activities: Lecture/note-taking: Italian city-states and politics
		Materials: Machiavelli reading (The Prince); Pico della Mirandola reading (Oration)
		Follow Up/HW: Read Chapter 10 (Kagan et al.) and begin outlining it; study the day's readings
Friday	TLW: Be introduced to humanism	Objective: Introduce Renaissance Humanism
		Activities: Lecture/note-taking: Humanism and the arts
		Materials: Packet #1: Petrarch reading
		Follow Up/HW: Chapter 10 (Kagan et al.) outlining (due F)